NOTIFICATION

Attention: B. Tech./M. Tech./MCA students of the institute

As per the decision of MAHE, all the students of the institute who are eligible and have written the makeup examinations of the just concluded ODD semester, are provided with the option of viewing their evaluated answer script before processing and publishing the results. In view of this, the students are advised to note the following:

1. The answer script view (along with the scheme of evaluation) for the students is facilitated on the institute campus at the designated locations and on specified dates.
2. This option will be made available to the students as per the following schedule:
 - a) Third and Seventh semester B. Tech.: January 27, 2024
 - b) First and Fifth semester B. Tech.: January 29, 2024
 - c) First semester M. Tech. and First / Third semester MCA: January 27, 2024 (Venue: Respective departments).
3. The students who view their answer scripts will be facilitated for giving their feedback on the evaluation.
4. The moderation of first evaluation based on the feedback if any, from the students will be undertaken and the results will be published.
5. Subsequent to this, there is no provision for revaluation after the publication of results, even for those students who did not utilize the option of answer script view.
6. The answer script view provision is an option given to the students but it is not mandatory for them to view their evaluated answer script.
7. The details of designated locations on the campus and schedule for eligible B. Tech. Students to view the evaluated answer scripts and the mode of giving the feedback on evaluation will be communicated through a separate notification in SLCM.
8. Students attending the answer script view sessions have to carry their institute ID card mandatorily.
